New Studio Album Coming 2018

The Lost Trailers are a Top 10 Billboard country music act based in Nashville, TN. The band got their first big break playing a Fourth of July picnic held by the one and only, Willie Nelson. That same year, the Trailers released their debut album, Story of the New Age Cowboy. After being signed to Universal Records, the group released the albums, Trailer Trash and Welcome to the Woods. Their following self-titled album produced the singles, "Call Me Crazy" and "Why Me," both of which entered the Billboard Hot Country Songs chart. The Lost Trailers next album, Holler Back, would prove to be very successful, with 3 ACM nominations, the two Billboard singles, "How Bout You Don't," and the smash hit song, "Holler Back."

Shared the Stage with:

Brad Paisley • Taylor Swift • Sugarland
Big and Rich • Dustin Lynch • Jason Aldean
Chris Young • and many other Billboard top artists.

The Lost Trailers are currently in the studio working on a new album. The upcoming new songs are co-written with artists such as Chris Stapleton, Thomas Rhett and produced by award winning Nashville producer, Dave Tough.
